Cosa offriamo? – The Cambridge stages of education

Progressive and flexible

Why do schools in Italy chose Cambridge?

- ▶ Part of the University of Cambridge
- ▶ Excellence in education
- ▶ Investment in education
- ▶ Internationally recognised
- ▶ Flexible and easy to implement with National Curriculum
- ▶ International benchmark
- ▶ Match CLIL regulation in Italy

Cambridge IGCSE - Italy

- ▶ In Italy IGCSE subjects are introduced in the first year of the secondary school
- ▶ Exams are normally taken at the end of the second year of the high school
- ▶ Over 75 subjects available – can be taken in any combination
- ▶ Builds skills in creative thinking and problem solving
- ▶ “Autonomia Scolastica” and the International section in the Italian schools

Cambridge IGCSE - Implementation

- ▶ Varies, depending on the School, on the resources available and on the number of extra hours
- ▶ Subjects are taught in English by the Italian teachers (CLIL)
- ▶ Subjects are taught as “Team Work” with a native speaker who is also a subject expert
- ▶ Read the document about the Implementation created by our Education Department

Cambridge International Examinations – Global Community

- ▶ The Italian National network of Cambridge Schools
- ▶ International Learning Community for learners and teachers

Supplementary Certifying Statement for CEFR

- ▶ A document which gives a breakdown of your Cambridge IGCSE English Language results into component grades and CEFR levels
- ▶ Evidence of your proficiency in all four skills (reading, writing, listening and speaking) according to the CEFR scale
- ▶ Cambridge IGCSE grade achieved for each component
- ▶ A generic CEFR table showing the associated CEFR levels for the Cambridge IGCSE grades for each of the four skills

- ▶ Please note: Cambridge candidates applying for a Supplementary Certifying Statement for CEFR must have included the Speaking & Listening component if applying with Cambridge IGCSE English as a First Language Syllabus (0500), or the Oral component if applying with Cambridge IGCSE English as a Second Language Syllabus (0510).
